RE: Notice to Cease and Desist Slanderous Statements Regarding Bank Capitalization

Dear [Name],

This letter serves as a formal demand that you immediately cease and desist from making false, defamatory, and slanderous statements regarding the capitalization and financial solvency of [Name of Bank].

It has come to our attention that you have publicly disseminated inaccurate information, specifically claiming that [Name of Bank] is undercapitalized or insolvent. These statements were made on [Date] via [Platform/Medium, e.g., Twitter, Public Meeting, etc.].

These statements are factually incorrect and legally actionable. As a regulated financial institution, [Name of Bank] maintains capital levels that meet or exceed all regulatory requirements. False claims regarding a bank's liquidity or capital adequacy can cause irreparable harm to its reputation, trigger unnecessary panic among depositors, and result in significant financial damages.

We hereby demand that you:

- Immediately stop making any further false statements regarding the financial health of [Name of Bank].
- Remove all existing defamatory posts, articles, or public comments from all platforms within [Number] hours.
- Issue a formal retraction and correction of the false information in the same forum where the statements were originally made.

Failure to comply with this demand will leave [Name of Bank] with no choice but to pursue all available legal remedies, including seeking injunctive relief and filing a lawsuit for defamation, trade libel, and tortious interference with business relations to recover compensatory and punitive damages.

Governing laws regarding bank slander are stringent. We advise you to consult with legal counsel immediately.

Govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
