RE: Notice to Cease and Desist Defamatory Statements Concerning Liquidity and Solvency

Dear [Name of Individual/Entity],

This law firm represents [Name of Financial Institution]. It has come to our immediate attention that you have been publishing and circulating false, malicious, and unsubstantiated statements regarding our client's financial stability, liquidity, and solvency. Specifically, you have stated that: [Insert specific false statements or links to posts].

These statements are categorically false and constitute defamation per se. Under [Insert State/Country] law, disseminating false information that impugns the business integrity or financial standing of a regulated financial institution is a serious offense. Your actions appear designed to incite panic and trigger a "bank run," which threatens not only the institution but the stability of the broader financial system.

DEMAND IS HEREBY MADE THAT YOU IMMEDIATELY:

- Cease and desist from making any further false or defamatory statements regarding [Name of Financial Institution].
- Remove all such statements from any public forums, websites, or social media platforms under your control.
- Issue a formal retraction and correction of the false information in the same forums where it was originally published.
- Preserve all records, communications, and metadata related to these statements in anticipation of potential litigation.

Failure to comply with this demand by [Insert Time/Deadline, e.g., 5:00 PM today] will leave our client with no choice but to pursue all available legal remedies. This includes, but is not limited to, seeking emergency injunctive relief, filing a lawsuit for compensatory and punitive damages, and reporting this matter to relevant regulatory and law enforcement agencies, including [Insert relevant authorities, e.g., FDIC, SEC, or State Regulators].

This letter is sent without prejudice to our client's rights, all of which are expressly reserved.

Governing yourself accordingly,
