RE: Unauthorized Exploitation of Internal Financial Audit Data

Dear [Name of Recipient],

This letter serves as a formal demand that you immediately cease and desist from the unauthorized use, distribution, and commercial exploitation of internal financial audit records belonging to [Name of Banking Institution].

It has come to our attention that your organization has gained access to proprietary and confidential internal audit reports. Specifically, you are engaged in the following activities:

- [Description of unauthorized activity, e.g., selling audit insights to third parties]
- [Description of unauthorized activity, e.g., using internal risk assessments for external commercial products]
- [Description of unauthorized activity, e.g., publishing trade secrets derived from internal financial controls]

The aforementioned data is strictly confidential and protected under banking secrecy laws, trade secret protections, and contractual non-disclosure agreements. Your exploitation of this sensitive financial information for commercial gain constitutes a direct violation of [Insert Relevant Law/Statute, e.g., The Trade Secrets Act] and causes irreparable harm to the security and competitive standing of our institution.

DEMANDS:

We hereby demand that you:

1. Immediately stop all commercial use of data derived from our internal financial audits.
2. Remove and delete all digital and physical copies of said audit materials from your systems and archives.
3. Provide written confirmation that you have complied with these demands by [Insert Deadline Date].
4. Provide a full accounting of any revenue generated through the exploitation of this data.

Failure to comply with this notice will leave [Name of Banking Institution] with no alternative but to pursue all available legal remedies, including seeking injunctive relief, monetary damages, and legal fees in a court of law.

This letter is sent without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to us.

Sincerely,
