Re: Commitment to Issue Irrevocable Standby Letter of Credit

Dear [Name of Contact Person],

At the request of our client, [Applicant Name] (the "Applicant"), [Bank Name] (the "Bank") hereby issues this binding commitment to provide an Irrevocable Standby Letter of Credit (the "SBLC") in favor of [Beneficiary Name] (the "Beneficiary").

The terms of this commitment are as follows:

- Commitment Amount: [Currency and Amount in Figures] ([Amount in Words])
- Purpose: To secure [Description of Underlying Obligation/Contract]
- SBLC Number: [Reference Number, if applicable]
- Expiry Date: [Date]
- Presentation Place: [Bank Address/Counter]

The Bank confirms that it has approved the credit facility for the Applicant and is prepared to issue the SBLC immediately upon receipt of a formal request and the required documentation as agreed upon between the Applicant and the Bank.

This SBLC shall be subject to the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits (UCP 600) or the International Standby Practices (ISP98), as specified in the final instrument.

This commitment is valid until [Expiration Date of Commitment Letter], after which it shall become null and void unless the SBLC has been formally issued.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
