Subject: Notice of Account Termination

Dear [Customer Name],

Please be advised that your account with [Company Name], associated with the username/email [Username/Email], has been terminated effective immediately.

This action has been taken following a review of your account activity, which identified patterns consistent with suspicious behavior and/or a violation of our Terms of Service. Specifically, the following activity was noted:

[Insert brief description of activity, e.g., unauthorized login attempts, fraudulent transactions, or violation of security protocols].

Due to the nature of these findings, access to your account, including all associated data and services, has been permanently disabled. Any pending transactions or subscriptions have been cancelled.

If you believe this decision has been made in error, you may submit a formal appeal by contacting our security department at [Support Email/Link] within [Number] days of this notice. Please include any relevant information that may assist in our review.

Sincerely,

[Name/Department]
