Re: Demand for Return of Personal Property

Dear [Recipient Name],

This letter serves as formal notice regarding the following personal property currently in your possession: [Detailed Description of Property, including Serial Numbers or VIN if applicable].

I am the rightful owner of this property. Your current possession of these items is unauthorized and wrongful because [Reason why possession is wrongful, e.g., expired lease, failure to return borrowed item, or default on security agreement].

I hereby demand that you return the aforementioned property to me no later than [Date/Time] at the following location: [Address for Return].

Failure to return the property by the deadline specified above will result in the immediate filing of a Replevin Action (Action for Possession) in [Name of County/Court] to obtain a court order for the seizure and recovery of the property. Please be advised that in addition to the recovery of the property, I will seek:

- Damages for the wrongful detention of the property;
- Costs of the court action and service of process;
- Reasonable attorney's fees, if applicable by law or contract.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,
