Subject: Formal Warning Regarding Unsolicited Credit Card Mailing

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally protest the receipt of an unsolicited [credit card/credit offer] sent to my address on [Date Received]. I did not request, apply for, or authorize the issuance of this card or the opening of any account associated with your institution.

Sending active or pre-approved credit cards through the mail without explicit consent poses a significant security risk and increases the potential for identity theft and mail fraud. This practice is unacceptable and violates my preferences as a consumer.

Please take the following actions immediately:

- Ensure that no account has been opened in my name.
- If an account was opened, close it immediately and ensure no negative impact is reported to credit bureaus.
- Remove my name and contact information from all marketing and solicitation lists.
- Cease and desist from sending further unsolicited credit offers to this address.

I request written confirmation within [Number] business days that these actions have been taken and that no further unsolicited mailings will occur.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
