Subject: Important Update to Our International Privacy Policy

Dear [Customer Name],

At [Bank Name], we are committed to protecting your personal information and maintaining transparency regarding how your data is handled across international borders. We are writing to inform you of recent updates to our Privacy Policy.

What is changing?

We have updated our policy to reflect new global data protection regulations and to improve the way we describe our data collection, storage, and sharing practices. Key updates include:

- Enhanced descriptions of how we process cross-border transactions.
- Updated information on data sharing with international regulatory authorities.
- Clarification of your rights regarding data access and portability.
- Improved security measures for cloud-based international storage.

Why these changes matter:

These revisions ensure that we remain compliant with international standards such as GDPR and other regional privacy frameworks, providing you with greater control over your personal financial information.

Effective Date:

These changes will take effect on [Effective Date]. By continuing to use our banking services after this date, you acknowledge and agree to the updated terms.

How to review the policy:

You can view the full text of the revised Privacy Policy on our website at [URL] or request a printed copy at any of our branch locations.

If you have any questions regarding these changes, please contact our Data Protection Office at [Email Address] or call our international customer service line at [Phone Number].

Thank you for choosing [Bank Name].

Sincerely,
