Dear [Borrower Name(s)],

This letter serves as official notification that [Lender Name] has approved an extension of your VA Loan Commitment for the property listed above.

The new expiration date for this loan commitment is [New Expiration Date]. All other terms and conditions outlined in the original commitment letter remain in full force and effect, provided there are no material changes to your financial status or creditworthiness prior to closing.

The Department of Veterans Affairs requires that the loan be closed and the Certificate of Eligibility be verified on or before this new expiration date. Please ensure all outstanding documentation is submitted to your Loan Officer no later than [Document Deadline Date] to avoid further delays.

If you have any questions regarding this extension or the next steps in your home-buying process, please contact us at [Phone Number].

Sincerely,
