Subject: Availability for Cybersecurity Threat Intelligence Specialist Position

Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally express my interest and confirm my availability for the Cybersecurity Threat Intelligence Specialist position at [Company Name].

With [Number] years of experience in monitoring global threat landscapes, analyzing Indicators of Compromise (IoCs), and utilizing [Specific Tools, e.g., SIEM, TIP, or EDR platforms], I am prepared to contribute immediately to your security operations. My expertise includes identifying Advanced Persistent Threats (APTs), conducting dark web research, and translating complex technical data into actionable intelligence reports for stakeholders.

Regarding my availability:

- Notice Period: [e.g., Immediate / 2 weeks]
- Work Arrangement: Open to [Remote / Hybrid / On-site]
- Interview Availability: [e.g., Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM]

I have attached my resume for your review and am eager to discuss how my proactive approach to threat hunting can help protect [Company Name] from emerging cyber threats.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
