Subject: Property Inspection Reinstatement Pending Underwriting Review

Dear [Borrower Name],

This letter is to confirm that a recent property inspection has been completed for the address listed above. Based on the results of this inspection, your request for policy or loan reinstatement is currently under formal review.

Please be advised that the reinstatement is subject to a final underwriting evaluation. During this process, our underwriting department will review the inspection report to ensure the property meets all required safety, maintenance, and eligibility standards.

Current Status: Pending Underwriting Review

No further action is required from you at this time unless specifically requested by our office. We will notify you in writing of the final determination once the review is complete, which typically takes [Number] business days.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact our customer service department at [Phone Number] or via email at [Email Address].

Sincerely,

[Sender Name]
