Re: Notice of Breach of Forbearance Agreement - Loan Number: [Loan Number]

Dear [Borrower Name],

This letter serves as formal notification that you are currently in breach of the Forbearance Agreement entered into on [Date Agreement was Signed] regarding the above-referenced loan account.

Our records indicate that the terms of the agreement have been violated due to the following:

- Failure to make the scheduled payment due on [Date Payment was Due].
- Failure to provide required documentation by [Date Documentation was Due].
- [Other specific breach description].

As a result of this breach, the Forbearance Agreement is at risk of being terminated. To maintain the protections provided by the agreement and avoid further collection actions or foreclosure proceedings, you must cure this breach by [Cure Deadline Date] by taking the following action:

[Specific action required, e.g., "Submit a payment in the amount of $0.00"]

If you fail to remedy this breach by the date specified above, we may exercise our right to terminate the Forbearance Agreement and resume standard collection activities or legal proceedings without further notice.

If you believe this notice is in error, or if you are experiencing further financial hardship, please contact our Loss Mitigation Department immediately at [Phone Number].

Sincerely,

[Sender Name]
