RE: Update to Identity Theft Dispute - Investigation Request

Dear Dispute Department,

I am writing to provide an update and additional documentation regarding my previous identity theft dispute filed on [Date of Original Dispute]. My file number for that dispute is [Reference/File Number].

I am a victim of identity theft. I am enclosing additional evidence to support my claim that the following accounts/items were not authorized by me:

- [Creditor Name/Account Number]
- [Creditor Name/Account Number]
- [Public Record/Inquiry Item]

Please find the following documents attached to this update:

- [A copy of an updated Identity Theft Report/Police Report]
- [A copy of my government-issued identification]
- [New evidence, e.g., utility bills, notarized affidavits, or communication from creditors]

Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), I request that you review this new information immediately and permanently block this fraudulent information from my credit report. Please provide a written confirmation once the investigation is updated and the items are removed.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
